

DRIVER TRAINING AT THE LAUSITZRING

Controlled race experience in luxury sports cars

Where once brown coal mining took place, now speed is king: at the area of the ancient Niederlausitz open-cast mining at the end of the 1990s the EuroSpeedway Lausitz was built. Europe's latest up-to-date race and test drive track opened on 20. August 2000. Thereby it is the youngest of four German race tracks permanently in use. The idea of building the track was already founded way back in the 1980s!

Fast cars, equipped with lots of horsepower are howling in their garages, waiting for you. Let them show you a racing experience far beyond your limits. Thrill for everyone's taste!
